

Methodological notes

Siauliai State University of Applied Science - Degree Programmes

Dataset Name:

Siauliai State University of Applied Science Degrees

Dataset Description:

This dataset consists of a table containing information regarding all the degree programmes offered at Siauliai State University of Applied Science in the academic year 2024/2025. Each degree programme's row contains basic information on the programme.

This dataset provides detailed information about the Educational Programmes offered by the Siauliai State University of Applied Science, including data about the respective faculties, course of study, national classification, study type, EQF level, ISCED level, gender of enrolled students per course of study, geographical information.

Authors:

Siauliai State University of Applied Science

Reasons for this dataset:

The dataset is intended to provide information on the university's current status in terms of the degree programmes it offers and the students it presently has registered.

This dataset aims to provide a comprehensive overview of all courses of study. It gives an overview of the numbers of students enrolled for the offered courses, for the period 2024-2025.

Validity and traceability of information, sources, websites:

The information was obtained from the University Study Accounting Department

Dataset limitations

Number of rows:

23 rows

Number of columns:

22 columns

Columns:

The following section contains a description of the column contents. The columns' description is preceded by the number and title.

Columns:

Column 1 is the University Acronym

Column 2 is the actual name of the University in the national language (Lithuanian)

Column 3 is the name of the University in English

Column 4 is the name of the Department of Degree Programme in Lithuanian

Column 5 is the name of the Department of Degree Programme in English

Column 6 is the name of the Course of Study in Lithuanian

Column 7 is the name of the Course of Study in English

Column 8 is the level of national classification of the course of study in Lithuanian

Column 9 is the level of national classification of the course of study in English

Column 10 is the course of study type in Lithuanian

Column 11 is the course of study type in English

Column 12 represents the level of European Qualification framework

Column 13 represents the level of ISCED Classification

Column 14 provides the number of students per course that declined to provide their gender

Column 15 provides the number of female students enrolled in the course

Column 16 provides the number of male students enrolled in the course

Column 17 provide the total number of students enrolled in the course for the period 2024-2025

Column 18 provides the geo-location of where in the campus the course takes place

Column 19 provides minor or equal 20 years: The number of students registered for the given course of study who are 20 years old or younger for the period 2024-2025.

Column 20 provides 21-40 years: The number of students registered for the given course of study who are 21 to 40 years old for the period 2024-2025.

Column 21 provides 40+ years: The number of students registered for the given course of study who are 40 years old or older for the period 2024-2025.

Column 22 provides OTHER ENROLLED.

Last update:

19.02.2026